

Workshop on Labour and Development

Thursday, November 16th 2017

Maison des Sciences Economiques, Paris (France) – 6th floor room

106 – 112 Boulevard de l'hôpital – 75013 Paris (Metro Campo Formio)

The International Development Economics (IDE) network brings together European researchers and institutions with partial funding from the French National Center for Scientific Research (CNRS). The workshop is organized by the team “Economics of Sustainable Development” of the Centre d’Economie de la Sorbonne (UMR CNRS 8174).

Registration by email before November 13th : labourdevelopment@univ-paris1.fr

Organizers: Rémi Bazillier and Laurine Martinoty

Program

10h30 – 11h: registration and welcome speeches by Rémi Bazillier and Laurine Martinoty (organizers) and Josselin Thuilliez (director of the CES Team “Economics of Sustainable Development”)

11h – 12h30 : Keynote speech : Simon Quinn (CSAE, Oxford Univ.)

Self-Employment, Capital and Job Search: Evidence from a Structural Model (with Michael Koelle)

12h30 – 13h30 : Lunch

13h30 – 15h00 : Session 1 – Labour Regulations (Chair: Josselin Thuilliez, CES)

Mariya Aleksynska (ILO)

Firms’ Demand for Temporary Labour in Developing Countries: Necessity or Strategy? (with Janine Berg)

Delphine Boutin (Univ. Auvergne, CERDI)

The Effect of Age Conditions on Child Labor: New Evidence from Brazil (with Olivier Bargain)

Clemente Pignatti (ILO, IHEI)

Enforcement and Compliance with Labour Legislation: The Effects of the Colombian “Action Plan”

15h30 – 16h30: Session 2 – Informality, education and employment (Chair: Jean-Claude Berthelemy, CES)

David Margolis (PSE)
Constrained Occupational Choice

Francesca Marchetta (Univ. Auvergne, CERDI)
School or work? The Role of Rainfalls in Madagascar (with David Sahn and Luca Tiberti)

17h – 18h: Session 3 – Labor market shocks and labour conflicts (Chair: Mathilde Maurel, CES)

Clémentine Sadania (AMSE, BETA)
International Labor Migration and the Egyptian Marriage Market

Victoire Girard (Univ. Orléans, LEO)
Rent Sharing and Labor Conflict: Evidence from Kazakhstan (with Alma Kudebayeva and Gerhard Toews)